Union Cautious But Will Study Inflation

By NEIL GILBRIDE
AP Labor Writer

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Union leaders cautiously promised today to help a new White House commission study inflation in the construction industry. But they said high interest rates and soaring prices of real estate, and building materials are far more to blame than wage hikes.

"They talk about labor costs and ignore the skyrocketing prices of land, materials, fixtures and equipment," said President C.J. Haggerty of the AFL-CIO Construction and Building Trades Department.

"They condemn our wage rate increases and bless the bonanza that the money managers have engineered for themselves through interest rates that the Nixon administration has condemned," Haggerty said in an official report to the convention of the 17 building trades unions representing 3.5 million construction workers.

But a spokesman for Haggerty said building trades officials will cooperate with the White House commission in hopes of getting across labor's views on inflation.

Would Depict Bartlett as Key Figure

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — The government sought Monday to depict Ernest Bartlett Jr. of Fort Smith as a principal figure in the formation of Arkansas Loan & Thrift Corp., but Bartlett said he was only "an errand boy" at the time.

Bartlett, former chief executive officer of the insolvent firm, is on trial in U.S. District Court on a 26-count U.S. Grand Jury indictment charging him with violating federal laws in his activities at AL&T.

Israel, Jordan Deal Gets Canal Flowing Again

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
NEW YORK (AP) — "America has been making the best pictures in the world for the last two years," said Terence Young, one of Britain's top directors.

Informed sources said Israel for the second time had agreed to let Jordan repair the canal unmolested in return for Jordanian agreement to enforce the Arab-Israeli cease-fire in the Jordan and Beisan valleys. Eyewitnesses reported that a 30-man crew began temporary repairs Monday and that the water was flowing again by late Monday afternoon.

The United States acted as the go-between in the negotiations, which Jordan requested, the sources said.

The 40-mile canal transports water from the Yarmuk River to northern Jordan's fertile valleys. Israeli commandos blew up a section of it on June 23 in retaliation for Arab guerrilla activity in the area. During July the United States was a go-between at Jordan's request, and Israel agreed to let the canal alone if Jordan curbed the guerrillas.

Shortly after the canal reopened, however, guerrilla activity resumed along the border. Israeli jets hit the canal again Aug. 10.

Despite the new agreement, an Israeli spokesman reported a rocket attack Sunday night from Jordan on a kibbutz four miles south of the Sea of Galilee as its residents observed Yom Kippur, the Jewish Day of Atonement.

The spokesman said Israeli forces returned the fire.

The Israeli said "a few" rockets also were fired from an improvised bazooka Monday at Zafirim, 15 miles southwest of Jerusalem. No damage or casualties were reported.

In Morocco, where leaders of 26 Moslem nations were meeting in an Islamic conference, President Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt said in a message that the recent fire in the Al Aksah mosque in Jerusalem was a "premeditated act" and a threat to free peoples throughout the world.

Nasser, recovering ill with influenza in Cairo, is represented at the meeting in Rabat by Vice President Anwar Sadat. The conference was called in an attempt to use the fire to rally non-Arab nations against Israel.

Nasser's message told them that the fire was "only one aspect of a picture which threatens not only the Arab nation but free peoples throughout the world, who are now able to measure the full dimensions of this threat."

The Rev. Jesse Jackson, director of Operation Breadbasket, economic arm of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, spoke to some 3,000 persons in Chicago's Civic Center Plaza.

He scoffed at a construction industry offer of 4,000 jobs for black workers in Chicago.

Black Monday in Cities Across U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

"Black Monday" was observed in four cities across the nation by Negroes protesting what they charge is job discrimination in the building trades.

In Chicago, Oklahoma City and Seattle, parades and rallies were held.

Dr. Don Freel spoke to the group and presented the film.

Plans are being completed for the annual light bulb sale to be held Monday, Oct. 6.

Jim Wilson of Texarkana was a guest and Jim Crippen of Good-year Tire and Rubber Co. was introduced as a new member.

He scoffed at a construction industry offer of 4,000 jobs for black workers in Chicago.

Opponents of the project contend much of the $600 million the government already has put out for research and design study has been wasted. They say sonic booms would make it impossible to fly the plane over inhabited areas and that the federal funds are needed to solve other domestic problems.

It is estimated another $600 million in government funds will be required before the first of two prototypes of the Boeing Corp. produced 1,800-mile-per-hour aircraft can be flight tested in 1972.

The airplane, to carry 300 passengers, would be expected to go into commercial use in 1978.

The U.S. government has accepted Boeing's revised, fixed-wing design and the company is ready to begin production this year.

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The $45 million plan to obliterate the only remaining original part of the nation's Capitol has run into its first Senate obstacle in the person of Sen. William Proxmire, chairman of the subcommittee considering the proposal.

The Wisconsin Democrat said in advance of today's hearing by his subcommittee, "there has been absolutely no justification" for the House-approved bill that would tear down the Capitol's 145-year-old west front, extend it 88 feet and recreate its facade in marble.

Three guests at the meeting included Miss Sally Timberlake, Mrs. Olwen Steagall and Mrs. H.A. Willett. Miss Timberlake brought a thought-provoking message, "Who Started the Gossip?"

After judging of the one-flower arrangements brought by the members, Mrs. H.C. Burke was declared the winner. The hostesses served cookies and cold drinks for refreshments.

Do Americans really value material things more than human relationships?

Not so, according to a survey of the Allied Van Lines Consumer Panel. When asked what factor made moving away from the former home most difficult, 72 per cent of the panel members named "leaving friends and relatives."

In a distant second place, mentioned by 16 per cent of the panel, was "leaving a nice house."

Why do families make a long distance move? The reason that's way ahead of all others is a change in the father's work situation. Fifty-two per cent of the panel identified this as a transfer within the company. An additional 28 per cent said that the move involved a job change.

The breadwinner's improved job situation also rated high as a reason for anticipating the move. When asked what factor made them most look forward to the move to the new home, 61 per cent of the panel named the better job for their husband. Clustered far behind were a number of other reasons: better climate; being near family and friends; better schools; newer and better house; the opportunity for new experiences.

Oh, yes, about those human relationships . . .

Not everyone, it seems, shares in the general sense of well-being. In the last category mentioned—what caused greatest anticipation for the move—one respondent said: "to get away from the relatives"—underlined testily three times.

"THE TIGERS" GET MAIL, WANT MORE

Dear Helen: Would you please reprint the address of "The Tigers," the company in Vietnam whose members want mail? My paper got thrown away, and I'd love to write to them. — VICKI

Dear Vicki, and all you readers who asked for a reprint:

The Tigers address is:

TO THE TIGERS,
Company C 3rd Battalion,
21st Infantry,
196th Infantry Brigade,
American Division,
APO San Francisco, Calif.,
96256.

A note from Ernie L. Carrier, a Tiger captain, says that some 15,000 letters have come to the company as a result of my one mention in HHU. Morale, he adds, has been halped tremendously by all the support from home, and he hopes the letters keep coming.

Many girls write...that they have received answers from Tigers and "their letters are terrific." One girl said, "Almost all these soldiers are under 20. They're so lonely. Please, everyone, keep writing to them!"

So do! And thanks for your interest! — H.

Dear Helen: Maybe you won't print this, but I hope you do.

Please tell girls that "going all the way" isn't as simple as it sounds. Most people don't know this but cervical cancer appears much more often in women who started having intercourse in their early teens.

Also you run a chance of becoming unable to bear children. And then there's V.D. I got it when I was 15. It's frightening and awful, and the treatments are no fun. Sometimes you don't get cured, especially if you don't go back for the full treatment.

Then — the biggest thing — is your pride. You lose it completely, and begin to hate yourself.

Well, I've learned my lesson. I'm trying to make a comeback, but it's hard when the word is out that you're easy. I swear I won't fall again. — PRAY FOR ME

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — ABC tossed its Monday punch at "Laugh-In"—two early evening shows which ABC hopes will attract some of the viewing audience, particularly young people, from the rival channel.

The first program was "Music Scene," 45 minutes of the top musical numbers of the moment, with guest stars that included the Beatles—on film plus Tom Jones and James Brown. The comedy was entrusted to a company of young improvisationists recruited by the producer.

In the first show the comedy, used to introduce the musical numbers, seemed weak and uncertain. But the young performers have been working together only briefly. Even so it is hard to get excited about a sketch which has a man asking a store clerk for a pair of elevator shoes and the clerk starts to grow in size.

The program ended at 8:15 EDT and, without the usual pause for commercials and station identification, the opening scenes of "The New People" appeared. This 45-minute dramatic series promises to be an interesting novelty with a point of view.

It is based on the experiences of 40 young Americans, from all social and ethnic strata, stranded by a plane crash on an abandoned tropical island. Fights and feuds broke out, there were racial tensions, personality clashes and finally almost a lynching when one mentally retarded boy ruined their chances of rescue because he was angry at another member of the party.

The young performers are in interesting variety and promise to make the show interesting viewing, after the large cast is sorted out.

Bob Hope returned for his 20th TV season with an hour special on NBC that included about two dozen comics—"all the comedians in California except Mayor Yorty," quipped the star. He handled the mob smoothly with a loosely constructed storyline about a comedians' strike against network censorship.

Flip Wilson's special that followed contained some of the comedian's long and amusing stories but included some material he has used elsewhere before. Andy Williams was a singing guest and Jonathan Winters came in with one of his lesser Maudie Fricker romps. The hour seemed anticlimactic after the boisterous fun on the Hope show.

U.S. To Crack Down on Charter Flights

By VERN HAUGLAND
AP Aviation Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government is preparing to move against airlines that violate rules governing cut-rate charter air travel. Somehow, charters for such groups as the "International Association of Old Bastards" have a hollow ring.

The Civil Aeronautics Board soon will resume hearings in California on reports of mass illegal flights to Europe originating in that state.

And the CAB's enforcement bureau says it probably will file a number of formal complaints against alleged violators this fall.

Those lines found in violation are subject to fines and even service suspensions if it is proven they have sold charter seats — at rates up to 50 per cent cheaper than scheduled flights — to nonmembers of the chartering group, or to groups organized solely for the purpose of flying cheap.

CAB member John G. Adams warned the supplemental air-lines last spring the board had heard rumors of as many as 300 extra-legitimate charter flights to Europe from California over the summer.

Adams advised the airlines to police the charters themselves, rather than leaving the matter to the federal government—and subjecting themselves to possible bills.

Killebrew's Homer Sends Twins to Lead

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer
The West has been won, but Minnesota's embattled Twins figure they've just begun to fight.

"We've got a long way to go," a subdued Harmon Killebrew cautioned Monday night while the Twins celebrated a 4-3 victory over Kansas City that clinched first place in the American League Division.

Billy Martin, the Twins' fiery freshman manager, toasted his players with champagne after Killebrew's 47th home run and a pair of run-scoring singles by little Cesar beat the Royals. But Killebrew and several other Minnesota veterans reflected soberly on their next battle.

Having mathematically ousted second place Oakland, the Twins must now prepare for their pennant playoff against Baltimore's runaway East Division champs, beginning Oct. 4 in the Orioles' park.

"Don't get me wrong; it's great to win," said Bob Allison. "But we've got to win three more before we get into a World Series."

In Monday night's only other AL action, Boston nipped the New York Yankees 4-3 and Seattle shaded California 5-4.

In National League play San Francisco topped San Diego 4-2; Atlanta defeated Houston 5-3; Cincinnati edged Los Angeles 2-1 and the New York Mets downed St. Louis 3-1.

Killebrew, who now leads the majors in both runs batted in, 137, and homers, tied the game with a leadoff blast in the fourth inning. Allison followed with a double and came around to score on two fly balls, sending the Twins ahead to stay.

But Tovar's RBI singles in the fifth and ninth proved decisive as the young Royals struck for three runs, knocking out winner Bob Miller. The Minnesota right-hander, making his first start since he pulled a rib muscle on Aug. 8, checked the expansion team on five hits until the ninth.

"This was the big one," Martin bubbled after Al Worthington got the final out. "I'm glad we clinched it. Now we can relax."

Mike Garman, a 20-year-old right-hander, beat the Yankees in his major league debut, but needed relief help from Sparky Lyle after the Red Sox came from behind with a four-run burst in the fourth.

George Scott's triple was the key blow.

A two-run throwing error by California pitcher Andy Messersmith in the fifth inning helped the Pilots subdue the Angels. Reliever Diego Segui checked an eighth inning California rally and mopped up in the ninth, preserving the victory for Dooley Womack.

Wheelington Leads B Boys to Victory

By RALPH ROUTON
Star Sportswriter

With sophomore Ray Wheelington running for 191 yards, the Hope "B" Lizards scored two second-half TD's to whip the Nashville Scrappers 14-0 last night at Nashville.

It was the Lizards' first win of 1969 after two opening losses, and a satisfying victory it was. After stalling offensively for a half, Hope started opening holes in the last two quarters and the result was over 200 yards rushing.

Penalties and bad field position hurt the Lizards in the first quarter, as Nashville dominated play but couldn't score. Hope's first break came with 6:15 left in the half, as 240-pound tackle Winston Franks recovered a fumble at the Scrappers nine.

That possession ended unsuccessfully after a penalty and two losses, and moments later Nashville grabbed a Hope fumble and began to drive. This march ended 18 yards short of paydirt, ending the half at 0-0 and giving the fans good reason to predict a scoreless tie.

The Scrappers retained excellent position with the long punts of sophomore Randy Walston, who quick-kicked a 42-yards to the Hope 11 with 4:10 left in the third period. A holding penalty sent the Lizards back to the seven-yard line at third down, which was the turning point.

Taking a pitchout left and heading upfield, Wheelington outran everybody for 93 yards to paydirt with 3:09 left in the quarter. The PAT was blocked, leaving the score 6-0.

After the defense began getting to Scrapper passer Bobby Keaster for losses, and Bobcat Hiram Reynolds covered a fumble at the Nashville nine. Once more nobody could score, though an 8-yard score by Wheelington was called back.

Finally, halfback Anthony Davis intercepted a Keaster aerial late in the game and rambled 44 yards to the Nashville 17. Three plays later Rusty Quillin sailed over from the five for the second touchdown with only 0:13 to play.

This time QB Tommy Frazier hit Clifton Pevey for a 3-yard pass and two points on the conversion to make it 14-0, and the Hope contingent of fans was happy and satisfied.

Coaches Willie Tate and Johnny McMurry were overall pleased by the win especially in the line and secondary on defense and the offensive blocking.

Besides Wheelington, Rusty Quillin totaled 21 yards on six runs, and Frazier carried six times for six yards. Halfback Larry Ray led the Scrappers with 31 on 12 carries, but QB Bobby Keaster was hit for (-88) yards to pull Nashville below zero overall.

The Yerger Jr. Bobkittens clash with the Arkadelphia Beavers on Thursday night at Hammons Stadium with a 7:30 p.m. kickoff. Both teams are impressively 2-0 and have been compared as about even by common opponent Prescott.

A good crowd is expected for the games which puts two teams equipped with fast breakaway backs and good defenses. After Hope beat Prescott 25-0 in the opener, the Curley Wolves dropped a 35-13 decision to the Beavers who haven't lost since 1965.

Condemnation Awards Are Reversed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Supreme Court Monday reversed five or six cash awards in highway right-of-way condemnation cases heard in the court of Circuit Court Judge Russell Roberts of Conway.

The state Highway Department has charged that excessive judgments have been given by juries in Conway County for highway right of way.

Cases reversed were:

— Heirs of N. D. Ring and others. Justice John A. Fogelman said, "We failed to find substantial evidence to support a jury award of $3,600 for 1.4 acres on Highway 9 near Morriston Bridge."

— W. F. Lemley and others. Justice Conley Byrd wrote the opinion on a $13,000 award for 12.72 acres of a 120-acre tract south of Interstate 40.

— Jewell Thomas Dane and others. Chief Justice Carleton Harris wrote the opinion on the taking of 18.40 acres of an 80-acre tract of Interstate 40 for $11,000. Fogelman dissented.

George Rose Smith wrote the opinion on taking of 14.09 acres along the southern edge of a 50-acre tract for $65,000. Fogelman dissented.

— Alma Summers Wallace, Justice Lyle Brown wrote the opinion on taking of 2.55 acres for the relocation of Arkansas 9 for $18,00.

The one case upheld was Guy Lee Clark and others. Written by Fogelman, the case involved the taking of 5.76 acres of a 40-acre tract for control access to the highway with a judgment of $5,000. The court said that the testimony was sufficient to justify the verdict.

Ignored His Death

When former President John Tyler died at Richmond, Va., in 1862, the government made no announcement or proclamation of his death and no official notice of his demise was taken.

Given 15 Years for Robbery

HELENA, Ark. (AP) — Everett Hardy Wyatt of Searcy was sentenced to 15 years in prison Monday by Circuit Court Judge Elmo Taylor after pleading guilty to armed robbery in the holdup of the Helena National Bank.

Wyatt was charged with taking $34,000 in a holdup at the bank Jan. 3. He was arrested July 2 by the FBI near Little Rock.

He faces federal charges on the same offense.

$1.3 Million Day Spent on Antimissile

By BOB HORTON
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army will spend $1.3 million a day from now through Nov. 3 on Safeguard antimissile research just to keep the big project alive pending full congressional approval.

The expenditures were authorized by the Army Monday. Specifically, the Army awarded $55 million to Western Electric, prime contractor of the system, to use under an outstanding research and development contract totaling $249.65 million.

Money for that contract technically is provided in the defense budget for fiscal year 1970, but the budget has not completed the legislative route through Congress.

"Without this extension, all Safeguard research and development would halt as of Sept. 22," the Pentagon said.

The Pentagon said the action was ordered by Secretary of the Army Stanley R. Resor "in keeping with the Army's position of committing only the minimum funds necessary to sustain the program pending a congressional decision."

The Safeguard system—a program requiring $800 million this year and eventually a total of $6 billion to $7 billion—won a key Senate test in August but still lacks expected House approval.

There was a tie for second place, the Langston trio. At left is Donna Langston, Nancy Brown and Rhonda Langston. They tied with Milayne Price, Indance costume, from Garland City and third place went to Peggy King, Hope at far right.

Quits Because of Expense Account Error

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Revenue Commissioner Bob Scott said today that a top department official, whose expense account error was caught in the accounting system he set up, resigned Monday.

David L. Jones, 37, of Dardanelle, director of finance and purchasing, said he couldn't permit a cloud on his own expense accounts when it was his duty to keep those of other employees accurate.

Scott confirmed that he and Jones had discussed the expense account mistake and agreed that Jones' effectiveness would be diminished as a result.

According to another source in the Revenue Department, Jones had gone to New Orleans to attend a computer school and had used an airline credit card for the trip. While in New Orleans, he rented a car for transportation.

It was reported Jones instructed his secretary to charge 25 miles a day in New Orleans on his expense account. She apparently assumed he had driven there in his own car and credited him with 450 miles each way for travel.

Editors are alike. Louis Graves in today's edition is still writing about the trouble he had moving the Nashville News to its new building. The Star has in effect moved twice under the present 40-year ownership, making a complete removal when we transferred from S. Main St. to our present site on S. Walnut in 1932—and a partial removal when we reconstructed the S. Walnut St. building in 1955, leaving the plant in place but moving the office across the street temporarily.

Graves and I both subscribe to what Ben Franklin said: "Three removes are as bad as a fire."

A note from Claud W. Garner, novelist who was born in Hope and reared here and at Washington, tells me he is recuperating at his home in Weatherford, Texas, following a stroke July 1.

He has been at home since release from a Fort Worth hospital Aug. 14, and has recovered to the point where he is typewriting letters to old friends.

What he wrote me about was to ask whether I got a reviewer's copy of his new book, "Sam Houston, the Texas Giant," from the publisher, Nayler Publishing Co.

I did, and will review it shortly.

Millwood Dam and Ashdown are featured in the September issue of Scene, magazine organ of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.—a publication noted for its magnificent picture reproductions.

The article presents a two-page photograph of the Millwood Dam spillway, and text on the reservoir, the Ashdown community, and the new Nekoosa-Edwards Paper Co. mill, situated just south of Ashdown and drawing water from Millwood for its paper-making processes.

Famed Lawyer to Defend a Green Beret

By RICHARD PYLE
Associated Press Writer

LONG BINH, Vietnam (AP) — Famed Boston criminal lawyer F. Lee Bailey is going to defend one of the six Green Beret officers charged with murdering a Vietnamese double agent, the military attorney for the officer announced today.

Bailey will take charge of the defense of Capt. Robert F. Marasco of Bloomfield, N.J., who is scheduled to go on trial before a general court-martial on Oct. 20 along with Capt. Leland J. Brumley of Duncan, Okla., and Capt. Burge E. Williams of Athens, Ga. However, the defense is expected to seek a postponement of the trial.

Edward Bennett Williams, another of America's best known criminal attorneys, is expected to direct the defense of Col. Robert B. Rheault of Vineyard Haven, Mass., the former commander of Special Forces troops in Vietnam and the highest ranking of the defendants. Rheault and two others are to be tried after the other three officers, but there are indications the charges will be quashed if the first trial ends in an acquittal.

Marine Death Probed at Paris Island

PARRIS ISLAND, S.C. (AP) — An investigation into the death of a recruit who said he was "kicked and choked" at the Parris Island training base indicates fellow trainees may have hit him and pushed him against a wall, a Marine spokesman reports.

Pvt. Stephen E. Melson, 18, of Millsboro, Del., died Sunday after being hospitalized Sept. 7, four days after arriving at the Marine recruit training depot.

A Marine spokesman said investigators found that Melson told doctors at the U.S. naval hospital at nearby Beaufort that he had had the symptoms of which he complained for at least eight days.

Glen Campbell Stars Hope Melon Wednesday

A 135-pound Hope watermelon and C.M. (Pod) Rogers, Jr., Hope Star's circulation manager, will appear in a sketch on the Glen Campbell Show over the CBS network at 6:30 Wednesday night, Sept. 24. It will be seen locally on Channel 11, Little Rock, and Channel 12, Shreveport.

The picture shows a rehearsal scene while the production was being taped at the CBS Hollywood studios Sept. 11. From left to right in the picture: An unidentified man; Glen Campbell, native of Delight, Ark., who rose to stardom; Tommy Smothers of the Smothers Brothers, a guest on the show; and, back to camera, Pod Rogers. In the center are the remains of the 135-pound melon, smashed to bits purposely in the comedy action. The melon was grown by Aubrey Goodwin, veteran big-melon producer of Willowsville, Nevada county.

Carter Russell of Hope made the picture during rehearsals. Russell and Rogers drove a truck with a one-ton load of melons to California two weeks ago as part of Arkansas' official contribution to San Diego's 200th birthday celebration. From San Diego they went to Hollywood where Glen Campbell, fellow Arkansan, invited them to appear on his show being taped for airing Wednesday.
